DEAD BABY IN SATCHEL.

Coroner Decides Child Left a Ballway Station Was Killed.

(Special to The Evening World.)

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Jan. 25.—
Mystery surrounds the finding to-day of a dead baby in a satchel left at the Erie station in this city. Wrapped about the and the grip was one of good make, and the grip was one o good texture, but upon neither were there any marks to lead to identification. The grip was left in the station yesterday afternoon, and was opened to-day by the night ticket agent in the hope of finding some find the baby a fully developed male child's body jammed into the grip.

The Coroner, after an autopay, decided satchel while still alive and had been sufficiated. The police are working on the theory that the grip and its con-

The principal winess balled was Cameron S. Hinkle, a lawyer and Damocratic watcher in the Third Ward, who testified that his pollbook was stolen and that he was thrown out of the polls for challenging voters who claimed vacant lots and empty houses as residences. Democratis say that at least 3,000 of the 12,000 votes cast at the November election were fraudulent.

Railroad Watchman Has Remarkable Experience.

For several years I have been in the employ of the Eric Railroad Company, and in their employ I was taken with kidney trouble. I tried several doctors, but seemed to get no results from their treatment. I tried Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root taking four bottles which cured Root, taking four bottles, which cured me. I am seventy-two years old and am at present at the West Main Street crossing of the Erie Railroad in this village. CHRISTOPHER MCNALLY,
